MAJOR SPONSORS

 SPEAKERS*JAMES MULLINGER*Comedian

James Mullinger was one of the UK's top comedians and the Comedy Editor for GQ magazine when he moved to New Brunswick in 2014. Since his arrival, he has taken the country by storm. He has sold out shows across the country, made appearances on CBC's The Debaters, movies, Television shows, festivals, award shows and stand up specials...he's done it all. In March 2020, James was in the middle of a global tour when the pandemic forced him off the road. He has since become one of the most in-demand virtual comedians on the circuit, performing virtually for companies around the world and he is joining us on Thursday, May 19, 2022!

ROSE-MARIE CHAREST*Psychologist

Rose-Marie Charest is a psychologist, author and speaker. She was president of the Ordre des psychologues from 1998 to 2015, a position she left to concentrate on her career as a communicator. In addition to having published many books, she is well-known for regularly taking part in radio and television shows. When she speaks at conferences, she uses her knowledge in psychology and shares the expertise she gained throughout her career which included clinical and management positions, public and policy communications as well as organization governance.

PLATINUM SPONSORS

LAURA TAMBLYN WATTS

President & CEO, CanAge

Laura Tamblyn Watts is the Founder and CEO of CanAge, Canada's national seniors' advocacy organization. Laura is a passionate advocate on a variety of urgent issues affecting older Canadians, including long-term care and home care, financial security, elder abuse, health care, ageism and inclusion of marginalized communities.

Laura previously served as Chief Public Policy Officer at the Canadian Association of Retired Persons before establishing CanAge at the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic. Since then, CanAge has emerged as a go-to media commentator and trusted voice for Canadian seniors, underscored by Laura's more than 20 years' experience defending the rights and dignity of older people as a lawyer and thought-leader.

She is a member of the CSA National Long-Term Care Standards Advisory and Technical committees, and an expert in long-term care and residents' rights.

After being called to the bar in 1999, Laura gained extensive legal experience in matters surrounding aging. She currently teaches the Law and Aging course at the Factor Inwentash Faculty of Social Work at the University of Toronto, where she is also a Fellow of the Institute for Life Course and Aging. Having served as past chair, Laura is currently an executive member of the Canadian Bar Association's National Elder Law section and a board member of the National Initiative for the Care of the Elderly (NICE network), PACE Independent Living, and Elder Abuse Prevention Ontario.

Laura has written numerous papers and contributed extensively to research on aging issues, and is a frequent and highly sought-after media commentator. Her upcoming book, The 3 am Guide to Your Aging Parents, will be released in 2022.
